

medcept terms and conditions

Cookies

medcept places cookies on your device to enable you to load the site faster if you visit our site again. It also enables us to gain an insight into the browsing habits of our visitors, as well as to analyse our site performance. The overall aim is to provide you with a more efficient service. We do not use the cookies to retrieve any personal data or identify you.

You are able to switch off cookies on most browsers. This will not limit you in use of our website

Personal Data

The only personal data we collect on our website would be an email address via our contact page or if you send us your CV in response to one of our open positions. This content is not stored unless our contact extends o.a business relationship. We do not use this information for any further purposes or share/sell this with third parties. |

If you wish to receive further information about our services, you can contact us via our 'get in touch page', via email 'info (@) medcept.com' or via mail or phone: medcept Luzernerstrasse 36 | 6045 Meggen | Switzerland | +41 41 379 79 79

Disclosure

We do not disclose any of our customer or partner details to third parties outside of standard government regulations.

Your rights

If your personal data are stored on our databases, you have a right to be informed about.

Therefore, should you wish to be informed, please write to us at: medcept, Luzernerstrasse 36 | 6045 Meggen | Switzerland